

Workshop Matrix

Room	Workshop Time	Workshop Title	Workshop Description	Primary Presenter	Title	Agency	Biography	Second Presenter	Second Presenter Biography	Third Presenter	Third Presenter Biography
Acacia	Monday 1:00 - 2:00	An Individual's Addiction, A Family's Loss	In this workshop, Daniel Skinner, Ph.D., Co-editor of Not Far from Me: Stories of Opioids and Ohio (Ohio State University Press, 2019) will interview two contributors to the collection, Sherie, & Alan Steinberger, of Highland Heights, Ohio. Their son A.J., is currently serving time in a federal penitentiary for his involvement with providing drugs to an individual who subsequently died. A.J. is now enrolled in Ohio University's Correctional Education program.	Daniel Skinner	Associate Professor of Health Policy	Ohio University	Daniel Skinner is a political scientist and health policy researcher who is currently Associate Professor of Health Policy in the Department of Social Medicine at Ohio University, Heritage College of Osteopathic Medicine, on the Dublin, Ohio campus. He earned his Ph.D. in political science from the City University of New York. Dan teaches, researches, and is active in health politics and policy, especially health care access, health care reform, and access to health care services for vulnerable and underserved populations. In addition to serving as co-editor of Not Far from Me: Stories of Opioids and Ohio (OSU Press, 2019), Dan is the author of Medical Necessity: Health Care Access and the Politics of Decision Making (forthcoming this fall with the University of Minnesota Press) and more than two dozen peer-reviewed academic articles in health policy, medical education, and political theory. He is currently working on a co-authored book (with Berkeley Franz and Jonathan Wynn) on hospital-community relations for the University of Chicago Press. Skinner is also host of Prognosis Ohio, a podcast affiliated with the Central Ohio NPR station, WCBE.	Sherie and Alan Steinberger	Sherie and Alan Steinberger are the parents of A.J. Steinberger, who is currently serving a twelve-year sentence in federal prison for selling fentanyl to a friend who overdosed and died.
Acacia	Monday 2:15 - 3:15	Trauma Informed Educational Practices in Corrections	This workshop will begin by describing the effects of repeated trauma on inmate students. Principles of Trauma Informed Educational Practices will be introduced along with how to use these practices to make school a safe place where students in corrections can develop resilience. The use of these practices as opposed to traditional correctional practices can increase student attendance, engagement, and outcomes, as well as prevent a wide range of problematic inmate behaviors.	Deborah Cochran PhD	Intervention Specialist	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	Deborah has worked in the special education, education, early childhood education and human services field for over 40 years in corrections, public schools, regional education agencies, hospitals, children's services, Head Start, and in teacher training at both Ashland University and Ohio University. She currently works as an intervention specialist at Richland Correctional.	Buffi Williams MSSA, LSW, LCDC-III	Title: MSSA, LSW, LCDC-III Agency: New Day Life Emotional Wellness Center Phone: 419-744-0592 Email: newday0822@gmail.com Buffi has worked as a mental health therapist and in community service development, supporting the essential needs to ensure the socioeconomic growth in local communities for over 20 years.
Acacia	Monday 3:30 - 4:30	TRUE JUSTICE: Bryan Stevenson's Fight for Equality	TRUE JUSTICE: Bryan Stevenson's Fight for Equality is a powerful new documentary. It explores the life and most memorable cases of Bryan Stephenson, an Alabama public interest lawyer, advocate for incarcerated people and founder/Executive Director of Equal Justice Initiative. This film sparks critical conversations about the history of racial injustice in America and compels us to confront the ways it continues to permeate American society in both in both obvious and covert.	Deb Chaffin	Teacher4/Title 1/PTP	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	"I want there to be repair in this country. Not just for communities of color that have been victimized by bigotry and discrimination, I want it to be for all of us. I don't think we can get free until we're willing to tell the truth about our history." -Bryan Stevenson Deb is involved in educating people about the need for criminal justice reform in our country. This documentary premiered on HBO last month and is now available for screening for activists, and community leaders nationwide to ensure that this unflinching work of historical documentation is used as a tool for reflection, conversation and action.
Acacia	Tuesday 10:30 - 11:30	ODRC State Honor Guard	Meet with members, open floor to questions and capabilities of the honor guard, who we are allowed to provide services to, and whatever else you might want to know about our team.	Michael Robinson	Corrections Officer	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	We are the ODRC State Honor Guard team, established in 1999, we have provided service to the department and state on many different events and occasions. Mainly we provide funeral detail services for our fallen department members and retirees, post and retrieve colors for all departmental conferences and conventions.
Acacia	Tuesday 3:00 - 4:00	Life on the Outside- A "Restored	This workshop will look at the lives of a panel of restored citizens and allow them to	Lynnmarie Fye	Visual Communications Teacher	ODRC	Lynnmarie Fye served as the Correctional Education Association (CEA) Region 3 Assistant	Stanley Frankart
Acacia	Tuesday 8:00 - 9:00	Addiction, Corrections, and the	Through a conversation between Daniel Skinner, Ph.D., co-lead on a grant-funded project in	Daniel Skinner	Associate Professor of Health Policy	Ohio University	Daniel Skinner is a political scientist and health policy researcher who is currently Associate	Pat Williamsen	Patricia N. Williamsen is Executive Director of the Ohio Humanities Council. Established in 1972,
Acacia	Tuesday 9:15 - 10:15	Life on the Outside- A "Restored Citizen" Panel	This workshop will look at the lives of a panel of restored citizens and allow them to describe their experiences in prison as well as their lives now. They will offer suggestions to teachers on how to better serve their students and teach more effectively to the offenders of today.	Lynnmarie Fye	Visual Communications Teacher	ODRC	Lynnmarie Fye served as the Correctional Education Association (CEA) Region 3 Assistant Director from 2015 to 2019. She is and advocate for her students, correctional education, and reentry. Since 2002, Lynnmarie has been the Visual Communications Teacher at Hope Valley Schools at Richland Correctional Institution in Mansfield, Ohio. Prior to teaching, Lynnmarie worked in the advertising industry for over 15 years. She runs her classroom like a small advertising agency offering pro bono work for the Correctional Education Association, Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections and numerous nonprofit organizations.	Stanley Frankart
Acacia	Wednesday 8:30 - 9:30	Coffee with Colleagues-CEA-O	Join your CEA-O Exec Board for a cup of coffee and participate in a moderated open forum
Back Dock	Wednesday 11:30 - 12:30	Why should I know my Automobile?	Learn about your car or SUV by hands on experience. we will be using still education props to	Mike Frazier	Frazier	Vocational Auto Instructor	I have been working on cars for a living since the mid 1980's I have been an automotive
Banyan	Monday 1:00 - 2:00	Alzheimer's and your sanity!	As correctional professionals, our lives can be filled with many stressors. Now add to that	Laura Krajcik	Intervention Specialist	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation	For the last 20 years I have taught for DRC, as first a GED instructor and then as an Intervention
Banyan	Monday 2:15 - 3:15	Special Education in Corrections	The know hows of what is needed in a current IEP to ensure compliance with the educational needs of the individual. This workshop will include forms used to design a good IEP, and tips from the counselor on LRE requirements.	Jessica Jones	Intervention Specialist	Ohio Department of Youth Services	Jessica has been with IRJCF since 2016. She has taught for a total of 15 years and 9 of the years have been in Special Education. Jessica was the Employee of the Year for IRJCF for 2018-2019 year.	Louis Clark	Louis has taught special education for 8 years, 5 at IRJCF. Louis was the Teacher of the Year IRJCF 2018-2019 school year.	Regina Curry	Regina has taught for 10 years as the Art teacher at IRJCF. She has moved into the counselor position this school year. Regina has been Teacher of the Month at IRJCF.
Banyan	Monday 3:30 - 4:30	Civility Towards All for Correctional Educators	Civility towards all is one of four DRC core values. Join us to explore how civility is approached in various educational systems, share how you experience civility in your correctional setting, and consider ways you can promote civility for your students and coworkers.	Beth Oehler	School Administrator	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	After 7 years as a high school math teacher, I joined DRC as a correctional educator. For over 23 years, I have proudly served as an ABE/GED teacher, guidance counselor, assistant principal, and school administrator at 4 institutions.	Doug Smith	I have been in correctional education for over 7 years. During this time, I have served as an ABE/GED teacher, guidance counselor, and educational leader at North Central Correctional Complex.
Banyan	Tuesday 10:30 - 11:30	Don't Forget Your "Why"	Teachers get burnt out from working and often we forget "WHY" we went into teaching. This workshop will hopefully help you remember your "WHY" and get you back to your best teaching self!!	Betsy Lavinder	Pre-GED/GED and Prior Math Teacher	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	I have taught Math in DYS BUSD for 32 and most recently Pre-GED/ABE/GED in DRC OCCS for two years.
Banyan	Tuesday 3:00 - 4:00	Power Writing formula for the GED Essay	This workshop will demonstrate a writing formula developed by J. E. Sparks and adopted by numerous school districts across the country. The formula for power writing will help your students construct well structured paragraphs and developed essays.	Diane Prettyman	Teacher	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	Diane has been teaching 26 years at ORW. She is also the Victim Coordinator and a Victim Offender Dialogue Facilitator. Diane has served as the Secretary for SCOPE for many years.	Lisa Johnson	Lisa has been teaching GED 18 years for DRC and Developmental Reading & Writing 6 years for Sinclair Community College. Lisa was a finalist for CEA Teacher of the Year twice and recently runner-up for TOY 2018. She also has been a RESA Mentor for 5 years. Lisa is also a member of ORW's Public Information Team.
Banyan	Tuesday 8:00 - 9:00	Using Phonics to Help GED Students Understand	Applying Reading Horizon skill sets, so that GED students can read multi-syllable words properly. This process ensures that the passages being read are comprehended properly.	David Wheeler	Teacher 3	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	I have taught in DYS as an academic and vocational teacher. In 2015 I started teaching for ODRC as an ABE/GED teacher. While teaching for ODRC I was trained in the Reading Horizon program, which I use for all levels of student readers.
Banyan	Tuesday 9:15 - 10:15	Having Difficult Conversations	Tips and strategies that enable us to have those difficult conversations at work and reach productive outcomes	Dianna Roby	School Administrator	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	I was hired by DR&C in 1996. I began working as an ABE/GED instructor at CRC. I have also worked as and Educational Specialist and am currently a School Administrator.
Banyan	Wednesday 8:30 - 9:30	Coffee with Colleagues-Teachers	Join your colleagues for a cup of coffee and participate in a moderated open forum discussing the various challenges that correctional teachers face. Topics will range from lesson ideas to classroom discipline.
Crown Palm	Monday 1:00 - 2:00	IEP Anywhere Training and Tips	This workshop will guide you through the basics of utilizing the software program called IEP Anywhere. We will walk through the creation of documents and all parts of a compliant IEP. Included will be the process of adding banks, checking for errors, and printing full and partial documents. Time will be allotted for individual questions.	Dana Hollis	Hollis	Exceptional Youth Administrator	Ms. Hollis has worked almost 30 years in the field of Education, with 18 of those years in the Department of Youth Services. In DYS she has worked as a School Counselor, Assistant Principal, Principal, Testing Administrator and Special Education Director. Specifically, she has worked with IEP Anywhere for six years.
Crown Palm	Monday 2:15 - 3:15	Mathematical Functions - How Do I Teach Them?	In this workshop, you are the student and we are teaching you functions! We will have a power point with sample questions. Sample worksheets (with answer keys) will be provided to use with your students. Considering there are 4 separate GED assessment targets that mention functions, this is an area where our students need to be proficient.	Nikki Lewis	GED Teacher	DRC	Nikki Lewis has been a teacher at the Ohio Reformatory for Women for 15 years. She teaches GED classes, with an emphasis on math. She obtained her bachelor's degree in education from Wright State University, her master's degree from Walden University, and is currently pursuing her principal's license through the University of Dayton. Nikki also teaches developmental courses for Sinclair Community College.	Amber Foltz	Amber has been a GED teacher at the Ohio Reformatory for Women for 4 years. She has a B.S. in Mathematics and a master's degree in teaching mathematics. Amber also teaches math courses for Sinclair Community College. Amber is one of the Teacher of the Year Finalists.
Crown Palm	Monday 3:30 - 4:30	The Many Hats That We Wear	Review the different areas that a School Administrator may cover within the institution that only belong to the Education Department but also what the local administration believes you should cover.	James Rinehart	North Regional Principal	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	12 years of public school service, 4.5 years as a GED teacher at a CBCF (CROSSWAHE, Oriana House), 15 years with ODRC of which I have been a ABE/GED Teacher, School Administrator, Asst. Principal, and 7 years as a Principal.	Richard (Lee) Fendrick
Crown Palm	Tuesday 10:30 - 11:30	Using Online Courses with Inmates	Join Fuel Ed and ODRC admins, teachers, and facilitators to hear about how ODRC is offering online courses for high school diploma completion and other options.	Tres Tyvand	National Account Manager	Fuel Education	National Account Manager, Fuel Education	Amy Biggs	ORDC staff	Terry Goodlett	Education Solutions Specialist, Fuel Education
Crown Palm	Tuesday 3:00 - 4:00	Using Online Courses with Inmates	Join Fuel Ed and ODRC admins, teachers, and facilitators to hear about how ODRC is offering online courses for high school diploma completion and other options.	Tres Tyvand	National Account Manager	Fuel Education	National Account Manager, Fuel Education	Amy Biggs	ORDC staff	Terry Goodlett	Education Solutions Specialist, Fuel Education
Crown Palm	Tuesday 8:00 - 9:00	Using Online Courses with Inmates	Join Fuel Ed and ODRC admins, teachers, and facilitators to hear about how ODRC is offering online courses for high school diploma completion and other options.	Tres Tyvand	National Account Manager	Fuel Education	National Account Manager, Fuel Education	Amy Biggs	ORDC staff	Terry Goodlett	Education Solutions Specialist, Fuel Education
Crown Palm	Tuesday 9:15 - 10:15	Using Online Courses with Inmates	Join Fuel Ed and ODRC admins, teachers, and facilitators to hear about how ODRC is offering online courses for high school diploma completion and other options.	Tres Tyvand	National Account Manager	Fuel Education	National Account Manager, Fuel Education	Amy Biggs	ORDC staff	Terry Goodlett	Education Solutions Specialist, Fuel Education
Crown Palm	Wednesday 11:30 - 12:30	The Future of Corrections Education Panel Discussion	A moderated panel discussion featuring leaders in various correctional education capacities discussing the direction of correctional education over the next few years to decades.
Empress	Tuesday 10:30 - 11:30	Walgreens Flu Shot Clinic	Return of the Flu Shots	Amanda Denman	Store Manager	Walgreens	Please send contract.
Empress	Tuesday 8:00 - 9:00	Walgreens Flu Shot Clinic	Return of the Flu Shots	Amanda Denman	Store Manager	Walgreens	Please send contract.
Empress	Tuesday 9:15 - 10:15	Walgreens Flu Shot Clinic	Return of the Flu Shots	Amanda Denman	Store Manager	Walgreens	Please send contract.

Workshop Matrix

Guava	Monday 1:00 - 2:00	How to be the next TOY	This workshop will discuss the process for becoming CEA_O Teacher of the Year. If you have interest in nominating or being nominated come see what the process is about. We welcome former TOYS to join the discussion.	Wille May	Teacher IV/Title I Teacher	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	Please use last years
Guava	Monday 2:15 - 3:15	Planter Box Make and Take	In this workshop you will get to spend a day in the life of a Career Tech Carpentry Student. You will learn the process of how to build a planter box from start to finish through the eyes of the student and get to complete your very own planter box through this make and take workshop.	Cheyenne Boggs	Teacher 1	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	I started with ODRC in July of 2004 as a Corrections officer SCI. In February of 2011 I took a Maintenance Repair Worker 3 position at SCI. In October of 2017 I became the Career Tech Carpentry Teacher at SCI.	Jeffrey Hill	Career Tech Welding Teacher at SCI
Guava	Monday 3:30 - 4:30	Planter Box Make and Take	In this workshop you will get to spend a day in the life of a Career Tech Carpentry Student. You will learn the process of how to build a planter box from start to finish through the eyes of the student and get to complete your very own planter box through this make and take workshop.	Cheyenne Boggs	Teacher 1	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	I started with ODRC in July of 2004 as a Corrections officer SCI. In February of 2011 I took a Maintenance Repair Worker 3 position at SCI. In October of 2017 I became the Career Tech Carpentry Teacher at SCI.	Jeffrey Hill	Career Tech Welding Teacher at SCI
Guava	Tuesday 10:30 - 11:30	Planter Box Make and Take	In this workshop you will get to spend a day in the life of a Career Tech Carpentry Student. You will learn the process of how to build a planter box from start to finish through the eyes of the student and get to complete your very own planter box through this make and take workshop.	Cheyenne Boggs	Teacher 1	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	I started with ODRC in July of 2004 as a Corrections officer SCI. In February of 2011 I took a Maintenance Repair Worker 3 position at SCI. In October of 2017 I became the Career Tech Carpentry Teacher at SCI.	Jeffrey Hill	Career Tech Welding Teacher at SCI
Guava	Tuesday 3:00 - 4:00	A look at DYS DJT and Job Retention	A forum discussing on the job training and teacher retention for DYS. How can we improve our on the job training and trainers to give our new staff the tools they need to work with Ohio's juvenile population at DYS. We will discuss each facilities current practices for training new teaching staff. Examine what is working and what is not working. How can we recruit and retain teachers?	Tamara Lane	On the Job Trainer/Teacher	Ohio Department of Youth Services	DYS employee for 10 years as a Permanent Substitute Teacher, and On the Job Trainer for our Education Staff. I am the Chair for the Intervention Assistance Team, member of State Labor Management for DYS, Peer Assistance and Critical Incident Management Team, Temporary Work Placement Committee, and the Training Advisory Committee. Prior to DYS, I worked at PCYC Lighthouse Youth Center as a SOS/Teacher, and for the Jackson Police Department as a Criminologist.	Richard Duncan	Training Officer for the Department of Youth Services.
Guava	Tuesday 8:00 - 9:00	Integrating Art into the Content Area	Get your students actively engaged in their learning by putting their ideas onto paper in a unique way. These techniques will help your students organize their thoughts by integrating art into your content area. Learn how to fold, cut, and glue paper to create a different way to display their knowledge. Leave the workshop with the confidence to try this in your classroom. These are three brand new ideas by this returning presenter.	Jane King	Art Teacher	Ohio Department of Youth Services	Jane King has been teaching art at Cuyahoga Hills Juvenile Correctional Facility for the past five years. She accepted this position after 34 successful years of teaching in the public school system fifteen of those at a Fine Arts school ending her career as their Site Coordinator. Jane received her Masters' from West Virginia with a specialization in Appalachian Folk Arts.
Guava	Tuesday 9:15 - 10:15	Planter Box Make and Take	In this workshop you will get to spend a day in the life of a Career Tech Carpentry Student. You will learn the process of how to build a planter box from start to finish through the eyes of the student and get to complete your very own planter box through this make and take workshop.	Cheyenne Boggs	Teacher 1	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	I started with ODRC in July of 2004 as a Corrections officer SCI. In February of 2011 I took a Maintenance Repair Worker 3 position at SCI. In October of 2017 I became the Career Tech Carpentry Teacher at SCI.	Jeffrey Hill	Career Tech Welding Teacher at SCI
Ironwood	Monday 1:00 - 2:00	Security Threat Groups / Lessons from ToCI	A Look at various Security Threat Groups that can be encountered in ODRC. This workshop will discuss how staff can identify various markings, Tattoos, and behaviors that staff can encounter in ODRC facilities and the community.	Ryan Jones	Staff Training officer	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	Staff training officer at ToCI for 3 years, 10 years experience as a Correction Officer at ToCI, having had experience with level 1, 3 and 4 inmates. As an officer was actively involved in the Security Threat Group (STG) unit. Currently trains and advises on STG issues, Tactical Communications and inmate manipulation for the department as well as for numerous outside Law enforcement agencies and stakeholders.
Ironwood	Monday 2:15 - 3:15	How to improve your CT Pay in your "Adventure"	This workshop is being presented to help Corrections CT teachers in DRC and DYS understand how to go through the columns to move up the pay scale. You are not stuck at BS or BS+20 level. Come join us to find out how you can do this with FREE education online.	Betsy Lavinder	Pre-GED/GED teacher & SCOPE VP	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	Betsy has taught 34 years with the State of Ohio - 32 years with DYS and 2 years now with DRC. She is the Vice President of SCOPE and wants to help you understand your contract better in regards to your pay salary.	Dominic Marsano	Dominic has taught APS for many years in DRC. He is the past President of SCOPE and has helped negotiate the last five contracts. He understands the contract extremely well and is prepared to help you understand the pay scale better.
Ironwood	Monday 3:30 - 4:30	Inmate Manipulation	A look at the types of manipulation tactics and the process that is often used against staff by inmates in a correctional environment as well as how as staff member can recognize these early warning signs and defend against them.	Ryan Jones	Staff Training officer	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	Staff training officer at ToCI for 3 years, 10 years experience as a Correction Officer at ToCI, having had experience with level 1, 3 and 4 inmates. As an officer was actively involved in the Security Threat Group (STG) unit. Currently trains and advises on STG issues, Tactical Communications and inmate manipulation for the department as well as for numerous outside Law enforcement agencies and stakeholders.
Ironwood	Tuesday 10:30 - 11:30	Addiction & The Power of Kindness	This can be a part 1 and part 2 for 2 sessions with 60 min each or I can do one session and shorten. I have presented this topic at several events and received good feedback. This lecture will address the disease of addiction, the history of addiction, naloxone - the antidote, recovery and medication assisted treatment and the power of kindness. This lecture is good for anyone who deals with folks suffering from addiction. It provides a different approach than some may recognize.	Angela Snider, RN, MS, APRN-BC	Manager Emergency Department/ Crisis Services	Fairfield Medical Center	I am the manager of a busy Emergency Department in Lancaster, OH. I am also an advanced practice nurse who sees patients at the urgent care. I have a huge passion for helping all patients, especially those who have been regarded not worth saving. My mission and passion is to share kindness in such a way to motivate those who need help and not drag them down more. I can send you my resume if you need more information.
Ironwood	Tuesday 3:00 - 4:00	How to Survive as a Correctional Educator	The workshop is intended as a lite but informative open discussion for the relatively new employee. The workshop's focus will look at ways to stay positive in this most negative environment. The presentation will provide information from fellow employees in the correctional education field ranging from instructors, administrators, guidance professionals and other educational staff. Although intended for new correctional educators, seasoned professionals are welcome to attend.	Mark Kefalos	Teacher III	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	MEd, Marygrove College, Detroit Michigan, BS Education, Ohio University, Athens Ohio, Social Studies Comprehensive with an emphasis in Political Science. I began working in Correctional in 1999 as a computer lab instructor. Currently I teach the Transitional Education Program, GED and Pre-GED classes. Prior to working in corrections I worked in the healthcare industry in community outreach and in advertising print production.
Ironwood	Tuesday 8:00 - 9:00	FRENCH 101 FOR FUN	Participants in this workshop will have lots of fun playing with a new/foreign language. You will be amazed how much French you learn and use in just an hour! Everyone will leave knowing a few useful sentences in French. Here's what you will be able to: Greet fellow participants, tell fellow participants your name, your profession, and where you come from. If the if the pace of the class goes as planned, the verb Avoir (to have) will be added enabling us to tell what we possess.	Henry Sadongo	Education Specialist IV / French Teacher	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	BA French language & Lit 1982, Assoc. Education, Univ. of Cape Coast Ghana, License 1984, Maîtrise FLE, Sorbonne Paris V 1985, MA, Linguistics, Sorbonne Paris V, 1985, MA French & Francophone Lit. OSU, 1992, Principal's License, 2017, Ashland University. Has worked as Education Specialist at LDC educ. Dept. since 1998. Taught French to High School Students and now facilitating a French Club.
Ironwood	Tuesday 9:15 - 10:15	Addiction & The Power of Kindness	This can be a part 1 and part 2 for 2 sessions with 60 min each or I can do one session and shorten. I have presented this topic at several events and received good feedback. This lecture will address the disease of addiction, the history of addiction, naloxone - the antidote, recovery and medication assisted treatment and the power of kindness. This lecture is good for anyone who deals with folks suffering from addiction. It provides a different approach than some may recognize.	Angela Snider, RN, MS, APRN-BC	Manager Emergency Department/ Crisis Services	Fairfield Medical Center	I am the manager of a busy Emergency Department in Lancaster, OH. I am also an advanced practice nurse who sees patients at the urgent care. I have a huge passion for helping all patients, especially those who have been regarded not worth saving. My mission and passion is to share kindness in such a way to motivate those who need help and not drag them down more. I can send you my resume if you need more information.
Ironwood	Wednesday 11:30 - 12:30	How to wire a outlet and switch (Hands on class)	This class helps you understand how electrical works and teaches you how wire a outlet and switch. This class you will get dirty. Join your colleagues for a cup of coffee and participate in a moderated open forum discussing school leadership within a corrections setting. This workshop is for both current school leaders and future school leaders. Topics will range from school culture and climate to improving student outcomes.	William Lewis	Teacher	DRC	I am Construction Teacher with the Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections and own a contracting business that provide services for customers.
Ironwood	Wednesday 8:30 - 9:30	Coffee with Colleagues- School Leadership	Join your colleagues for a cup of coffee and participate in a moderated open forum discussing school leadership within a corrections setting. This workshop is for both current school leaders and future school leaders. Topics will range from school culture and climate to improving student outcomes.
Portia	Monday 1:00 - 2:00	GED Ready RLA vs Pre HIsEt Reading/Writing	This workshop will compare and contrast the GED Ready RLA and the pre HIsEt reading and writing requirements and strategies. This workshop will be longer than normal to allow for analysis of both GED Ready RLA test and pre-HIsEt reading and writing test by participants. Participants will also analyze the extended response required by both tests.	Christina Kirkpatrick	Pre-Ged/GED Teacher IV	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	Mrs. Kirkpatrick has many years as an educator in both ODRC and public schools. Mrs. Kirkpatrick strives to continue to learn new strategies and methods to share with colleagues and students.
Portia	Monday 2:15 - 3:15	GED Ready RLA vs Pre HIsEt Reading/Writing	This workshop will compare and contrast the GED Ready RLA and the pre HIsEt reading and writing requirements and strategies. This workshop will be longer than normal to allow for analysis of both GED Ready RLA test and pre-HIsEt reading and writing test by participants. Participants will also analyze the extended response required by both tests.	Christina Kirkpatrick	Pre-Ged/GED Teacher IV	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	Mrs. Kirkpatrick has many years as an educator in both ODRC and public schools. Mrs. Kirkpatrick strives to continue to learn new strategies and methods to share with colleagues and students.
Portia	Monday 3:30 - 4:30	Encouraging Leaders in Difficult Environments	This 1 hour presentation will motivate and encourage leaders in their personal and professional environments. The major take away, is all of us are leaders to others in our lives, and we all are influencing people in many ways. This energetic presentation will inspire and motivate people to action, and is uniquely designed with corrections and criminal justice professionals in mind. The participants will take away some simple skills to help them be more effective leaders in any environment.	Jamie Houston	Criminal Justice Associate Professor and Department Chair	Ivy Tech Community College	Jamie held numerous positions in the Indiana DOC from a C/O to Assistant Superintendent. Jamie left the IDOC to become the Director of the CEP at Indiana State University in 2008. Jamie currently serves as an Associate Professor/Department Chair of the Criminal Justice with Ivy Tech Community College, Terre Haute.
Portia	Tuesday 10:30 - 11:30	GED Ready Math vs. Pre HIsEt Math test	This workshop will compare and contrast the GED Ready math requirements and the pre HIsEt math requirements. This workshop will be longer than normal to allow for analysis of both GED Ready math tests and pre-HIsEt math tests by participants.	Christina Kirkpatrick	Pre-Ged/GED teacher	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	Mrs. Kirkpatrick has many years as an educator in both ODRC and public schools. Mrs. Kirkpatrick strives to continue to learn new strategies and methods to share with colleagues and students.	Nikki Lewis	Ms. Lewis has many years as a successful teacher at ORW. Ms. Lewis excels in bringing math concepts to her students and math strategies to her colleagues.

Workshop Matrix

Porta	Tuesday 3:00 - 4:00	EDWINS "Knife Skills" with Derrick Speights	Screening of "Knife Skills" documentary about the opening of EDWINS with question/answers with Derrick Speights, Community Engagement/Reentry Coordinator, EDWINS Leadership and Restaurant Institute	Deb Chaffin	Teacher 4/YTP	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	Deb has nearly 30 years of teaching experience in a wide variety of venues. For the past 11 years she has been a Title 1 Tutor at both RIC1 and ManCI, facilitating under 22 year old students to obtain a GED or High School diploma. In addition, she teaches the re-entry approved program, YTP (Youth Transition Program) in collaboration with AAVIS House. EDWINS has become a valuable asset in transitioning from life in prison to successful reintegration into the community. "Working with Derrick and the EDWINS' staff has been empowering for me as well as my students. Their amazing scope of services keeps growing and reaching more people with Second Chances!"	Derrick Speights	Derrick's decision for joining the EDWINS' family was based on one thing: "I want to help people. Before, I got to help people with their dining experience; now I get to help people with their lives." Derrick assists with programming at our student campus, the EDWINS Second Chance Life Skills Center, working with both students and volunteers. He also oversees EDWINS' efforts to establish Culinary Clubs in Ohio's prisons and leads our Town Hall series. To reach Derrick about any of these initiatives, email him at Derrick@edwinsrestaurant.org or call him at 216-295-5660.
Porta	Tuesday 8:00 - 9:00	CBCF/Adult GED Programs Roundtable	Come and discuss best practices, biggest issues, GED information, TABE testing, Aspire partnerships, and any other pertinent issues. This session is an open discussion for those who teach classes or coordinate programs within the CBCFs or conduct GED classes for adults in jails, halfway houses, etc. Be prepared to share what works for your program and build networking opportunities with similar programs.	Sheryl Risner	Education Coordinator	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	Sheryl Risner is the Education Coordinator at West Central Community Correctional Facility in Marysville. She worked as an ABLE Instructor for 18 years and moved into corrections 4 years ago.
Porta	Tuesday 9:15 - 10:15	GED Ready Math vs. Pre HISET Math test	This workshop will compare and contrast the GED Ready math requirements and the pre HISET math requirements. This workshop will be longer than normal to allow for analysis of both GED Ready math tests and pre-Hiset math tests by participants.	Christina Kirkpatrick	Pre-Ged/GED teacher	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	Mrs. Kirkpatrick has many years as an educator in both ODRC and public schools. Mrs. Kirkpatrick strives to continue to learn new strategies and methods to share with colleagues and students.	Nikki Lewis	Ms. Lewis has many years as a successful teacher at ORW. Ms. Lewis excels in bringing math concepts to her students and math strategies to her colleagues.
Porta	Wednesday 11:30 - 12:30	Stream Lining Data Collection	Need to collect data on the progress of your special education students? This workshop contains some simple tips to streamline the process.	Jeanie Lemon	Ms.	Ohio Department of Youth Services	Jeanie Lemon is an Intervention specialist at Indian River for nearly 14 years. She teaches resource room science and does data collection within her classroom as well as collecting data for the school within the intake classroom. Data collection can be done simply with a structured process and some planning.
Tamarind	Monday 1:00 - 2:00	GED Testing Program Update	This session will provide an update on GED test-taker performance for individuals testing in Ohio correctional facilities as well as national data. In addition we will cover key updates, new features and resources to the GED testing program that impact correctional educators and test center administrators. We want educators and test administrators to have the latest information tools to help their students succeed.	Scott Saleeses	Regional Manager, State Relationships	GED Testing Service	Scott Saleeses is a Regional Manager, State Relationships with GED Testing Service. Scott works with GED stakeholders involved in GED preparation and testing from 6 states across the U.S. His goal is to work proactively with states to get more individuals to obtain their high school credential and be prepared to move on to college and careers. In addition, Scott provides information, training, and updates on the 2014 GED® testing program as well as gathering crucial feedback from stakeholders in order to plan future enhancements to the GED testing program.
Tamarind	Monday 2:15 - 3:15	Students Who Struggle to Read: Is it Dyslexia?	The International Dyslexia Association Central Ohio Branch will return to share information about what science tells us about struggling readers and how to help them.	Dr. Cheryl Chase	Presenter	International Dyslexia Association Central Ohio Branch	Cheryl Chase, Ph.D. is a licensed clinical psychologist in private practice in Independence, a suburb of Cleveland, Ohio. She specializes in the diagnostic and neuropsychological assessment of various conditions impacting children, adolescents, and young adults including ADHD, Pervasive Developmental Disorders, Learning Disorders, and emotional concerns. In addition to her clinical practice, Dr. Chase is also an accomplished speaker at the local and national levels, leading workshops on such timely topics as executive functioning, differentiated instruction, and creative ways to support those who struggle in school. Her down-to-earth and often humorous approach to learning makes her a favorite with educators, parents and children alike. Dr. Chase is an active member of the American Psychological Association, the International Dyslexia Association, and the Learning
Tamarind	Monday 3:30 - 4:30	Students Who Struggle to Read: Is it Dyslexia?	The International Dyslexia Association Central Ohio Branch will return to share information about what science tells us about struggling readers and how to help them.	Dr. Cheryl Chase	Presenter	International Dyslexia Association Central Ohio Branch	Cheryl Chase, Ph.D. is a licensed clinical psychologist in private practice in Independence, a suburb of Cleveland, Ohio. She specializes in the diagnostic and neuropsychological assessment of various conditions impacting children, adolescents, and young adults including ADHD, Pervasive Developmental Disorders, Learning Disorders, and emotional concerns. In addition to her clinical practice, Dr. Chase is also an accomplished speaker at the local and national levels, leading workshops on such timely topics as executive functioning, differentiated instruction, and creative ways to support those who struggle in school. Her down-to-earth and often humorous approach to learning makes her a favorite with educators, parents and children alike. Dr. Chase is an active member of the American Psychological Association, the International Dyslexia Association, and the Learning
Tamarind	Tuesday 10:30 - 11:30	Adult Learning 101	Different reading levels, different interests, different skills: every adult learner has distinct needs and abilities which will affect how they process information and how they need to be taught. This session will teach library staff the basics of how adults learn and specific ways to help different types of learners in a variety of settings.	Jessica Curtis	Adult Services Librarian	Westerville Public Library	Jessica A. Curtis is an adult reference librarian at the Westerville Public Library in Ohio as well as a graduate instructor for the Kent State University Library ISchool. She is a member of the 2019 Ohio LEAD team and the Assistant Chair to the Reference and Information Services division of the Ohio Library Council. She is a frequent presenter for OLC and NEO on the topics of reference, teaching adults, and technology education. She specializes in creating user-friendly classes for emerging technology and library services.
Tamarind	Tuesday 3:00 - 4:00	Learn how patch drywall hole (Hands on)	This class is going to cover different types of drywall patches that can be use. Different types of drywall mud and how to use them. You will get dirty in this class.	William Lewis	Teacher	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	I am Construction Teacher with the Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections and own a contracting business that provide services for customers.
Tamarind	Tuesday 8:00 - 9:00	Leveraging the Technology of Personalized Learning	This session will discuss the availability of performance and assessment data within Essential Education's GED™, HISET, TABE 11/12 and CASAS Academies. Instructors will learn how to pull reports that will allow them to evaluate student performance and determine the specific skills to focus on in order to ensure academic measurable skill gains for each individual student. Essential Education's NEW Adult Basic Education Workbooks will also be displayed and a Sampler provided as a giveaway.	Beth Williams	Blended Learning Specialist	Essential Education	Beth Williams, Blended Learning Specialist from Essential Education, manages program implementations of GED/HISET/TABE and CASAS Academy for the states of Ohio, Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana, and Kansas. Beth is a native Ohioan who now lives in Norman, Oklahoma and has worked in the educational software industry since 1986. She works tirelessly to ensure program success for ALL instructors and believes that ALL students can learn!
Tamarind	Tuesday 9:15 - 10:15	Reducing Stress in the Workplace	Stress in the workplace is inevitable, therefore this interactive workshop has a dual purpose. First, we will identify/discuss individual stress triggers. Second, I hope to introduce some new, practical ways to reduce daily stress, specific to your work environment.	Carrie Mustard	Mustard	GED Instructor	I have spent the last 15 years in education, primarily teaching Mathematics to high school students. This is my first year teaching GED at ORW. I spent 10yrs prior to education in the business sector doing sales, management and business acquisitions.
Tamarind	Wednesday 11:30 - 12:30	Better writing through Peer Review	Peer review is a vital step in the writing process and one many students are terrified of. With a few simple tools, students can become more engaged and confident in their own writing.	Britany Smith	English Instructor	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	I have been teaching for almost 15 years, and 9 of those years have been in corrections. I teach for both Marion Technical College and Ashland University, both online and face to face. I teach 3 different levels of college English, from Prep for College Writing to Advanced Research Writing.
Wisteria	Monday 1:00 - 2:00	STRS Ohio and You - Understanding your Benefits.	Your STRS Ohio benefit could end up being the foundation of your retirement income. Do you know how its calculated? This program will review the crucial elements used in the calculation of your benefit.	John Buch	Member Education Coordinator	STRS Ohio	John has been employed by STRS Ohio since November 1994 and all of them within the Member Services department. The primary function of the Member Services area is making sure members gain a complete understanding of their benefits. He has 2 Bachelor of Science degrees as well as holding a Certified Retirement Counseling certification with INFIRE through Texas Tech.
Wisteria	Monday 2:15 - 3:15	STRS Ohio and You - Understanding your Benefits.	Your STRS Ohio benefit could end up being the foundation of your retirement income. Do you know how its calculated? This program will review the crucial elements used in the calculation of your benefit.	John Buch	Member Education Coordinator	STRS Ohio	John has been employed by STRS Ohio since November 1994 and all of them within the Member Services department. The primary function of the Member Services area is making sure members gain a complete understanding of their benefits. He has 2 Bachelor of Science degrees as well as holding a Certified Retirement Counseling certification with INFIRE through Texas Tech.
Wisteria	Monday 3:30 - 4:30	STRS Ohio and You - Understanding your Benefits.	Your STRS Ohio benefit could end up being the foundation of your retirement income. Do you know how its calculated? This program will review the crucial elements used in the calculation of your benefit.	John Buch	Member Education Coordinator	STRS Ohio	John has been employed by STRS Ohio since November 1994 and all of them within the Member Services department. The primary function of the Member Services area is making sure members gain a complete understanding of their benefits. He has 2 Bachelor of Science degrees as well as holding a Certified Retirement Counseling certification with INFIRE through Texas Tech.
Wisteria	Tuesday 10:30 - 11:30	Question and Answer: Purchasing Supplies & Travel	Will supply basic information on how to get the supplies and equipment you need for your classroom. Travel is always fun and there are ways to find tutorials and other easy ways to help you get your funds reimbursed. Will provide information to help the traveler.	Robin Long	Long	OCCS Operations Director	Robin Long has worked for ODRC in many capacities for the last 22+ years including Account Clerk and Account Clerk Supervisor. She has worked for Education for 16 years. During her 16 years she has worked on many projects including the OhioMeansJobs O.N.E.STOP shops around the state of Ohio.
Wisteria	Tuesday 3:00 - 4:00	Generational Learning Styles	Millennials, Gen X, Baby Boomers: these terms can bring to mind both good and bad traits and personal attributes that may automatically influence the way we interact with clients and co-workers. This session will discuss some of the common age-based stereotypes and the way they can influence learning situations and workplace interactions. Different ways to (and not to) think about common situations will be presented so as to break down and prevent prejudices that might exist in your institution.	Jessica Curtis	Adult Services Librarian	Westerville Public Library	Jessica A. Curtis is an adult reference librarian at the Westerville Public Library in Ohio as well as a graduate instructor for the Kent State University Library ISchool. She is a member of the 2019 Ohio LEAD team and the Assistant Chair to the Reference and Information Services division of the Ohio Library Council. She is a frequent presenter for OLC and NEO on the topics of reference, teaching adults, and technology education. She specializes in creating user-friendly classes for emerging technology and library services.

Workshop Matrix

Wisteria	Tuesday 8:00 - 9:00	Correctional Education: An Integration of Andragogy	A lasting change in a student's behavior is to change the way they think. Students in correctional education programs often struggle with learning, behavioral and co-occurring disorders. This presentation is designed to familiarize the correctional practitioner with the knowledge and understanding of an effective and holistic approach of instructing.	Herman Lee	Correctional Andragogist	Illinois Department of Corrections	Mr. Lee is a correctional andragogist with over 4 decades of experience with the Illinois department of corrections. In 1982 he authored a manuscript titled, "A Handbook for Teaching Adult Basic Education in the Department of Corrections." This process manual became the school district's Adult Basic Education Language Arts Curriculum.
Wisteria	Tuesday 9:15 - 10:15	Correctional Education: An Integration of Andragogy	A lasting change in a student's behavior is to change the way they think. Students in correctional education programs often struggle with learning, behavioral and co-occurring disorders. This presentation is designed to familiarize the correctional practitioner with the knowledge and understanding of an effective and holistic approach of instructing.	Herman Lee	Correctional Andragogist	Illinois Department of Corrections	Mr. Lee is a correctional andragogist with over 4 decades of experience with the Illinois department of corrections. In 1982 he authored a manuscript titled, "A Handbook for Teaching Adult Basic Education in the Department of Corrections." This process manual became the school district's Adult Basic Education Language Arts Curriculum.
Wisteria	Wednesday 11:30 - 12:30	Wardens Q & A : How to advance and other questions.	Open discussion on advancement within the ODRC and steps to becoming a Warden or Deputy Warden	Sean Bowerman	Warden	Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections	4 years active duty Army 1988-1992. Army Reserve 1993-2006. Started with ODRC as an officer from 93-2000.SRT 1994-1996, STAR 1996-2006, Lieutenant 2000-2010, Investigator 2010-2013, Major, 2013-2014, Deputy Warden 2014-2018, Warden since 2018. Bachelors degree in Criminal Justice.				